

Hello,

My name is Martina. I'm doing Transition Year in the Kinsale Community School in Kinsale, Ireland. This year has been just great, I've made a lot of friends and I've lived unforgettable experiences. And, without a doubt, I've improved my English amazingly.

If you are thinking in going to another country to learn English, do not hesitate anymore, do it. It's wonderful. It's for sure the best way to learn English.

The only thing I would recommend you is to pick up a place where you do not find many people of your own country. I mean, this year has been one of the best years of my life, however I've been surrounded by a lot of Spanish and Catalan people and I know that if it hadn't been like this, I would have learned much more English.

If you can choose, choose a town where you don't find many people of your country.

Kinsale it's great and beautiful, but there are a lot of foreign people.

Transition year it's a great year to have found, but you don't do much so keep that in mind the year after.

I'm glad and grateful for this experience and I recommend you live it as well if you have the chance.

Best of lucks,

Martina Capallera TY student.
